

Project Profile

National Demonstration House Lakeville, MN

"The bottom line for you is a better investment for your housing dollar and greater control of your living environment." - Building Better Homes

R-Control Systems

A team of designers, building experts and scientists, contractors and trades people selected R-Control ICF system and R-Control SIPs for construction of the Building Better Homes National Demonstration House.

Quick Facts
3900 sq ft.
R-Control ICF Foundation
R-Control SIP Walls

This "living laboratory" has combined the best off-the-shelf building technology and products to demonstrate how to build healthier, safe, energy efficient, and more durable homes that will last for generations.

To learn more about

Building Systems

please visit

www.r-control.com

The R-Control project was part of:

Building Better Homes
Minneapolis, MN

www.buildingknowledge.net